ISES Code of Conduct

ISES requires that applicants agree to abide by a "Code of Conduct" to become a member of the Society. The Code of Conduct stipulates:

- 1) ISES is an independent body and acts to provide impartial scientific information.
- 2) The name and/or membership of the ISES must not be used to promote personal and/or organisational views and philosophies, unless directly ordered/permitted to do so by Council.
- 3) The name and/or membership of the ISES must not be used for financial and/or commercial gain, unless directly requested/permitted to do so by Council.
- 4) Members must not act in any way likely to jeopardise the integrity of the Society or bring it into disrepute.

Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct may result in termination of membership of the ISES and the forfeiture of any membership fees previously paid.

Transfer of membership fee

Please do not transfer the money until you are notified of the status of your application

For the time being, the membership fee can be transferred by international bank transfer, using IBAM and BIC codes. Be aware that the transfer costs have to be paid by yourself. We hope in the future to have credit card facilities available.

The information how to transfer the fee will be sent to you by email after you are notified of the status of your application
